- a) In summary, how would you describe yourself.
- b) Briefly describe your childhood.
- c) Tell me a little about the (your) family that you grew up with.
- d) Who is the most influential person for you? Why?
- e) What is your personal philosophy?

Answer

(+) For the last two years I have been working for Smith & Co as a project manager in the purchasing department. Prior to that I have had roles in the sales department: marketing, and distribution. I would describe myself as hardworking, keen to learn and easy to work with. I am 35 years old and I live in New York with my wife and my two children.

(-) I am 35 years old and I'm married with two children: Jemma and Jake. I live in New York, a few miles away from my parents and just up the road from my old school. After college, I joined Little Sparks as a trainee. After a few months, I got promoted as a supervisor. I left Little Sparks because I needed to be closer to home and I found a job in a local bakery, Owens, I don't suppose you know it but it wasn't a great place to work in so, I left after a couple of weeks and spent about two months on the dole. Fortunately, my friend was working at a place where they needed some help so I went there...

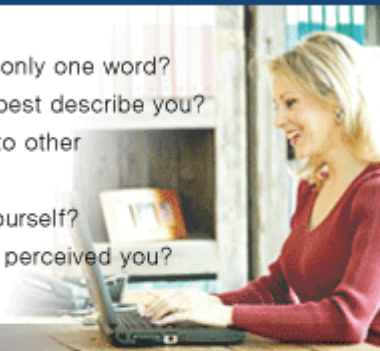

- Choose a part in your resume that you would like to discuss.
- Among the various experiences indicated in your resume, what would be most significant for you?
- (REFERING TO REFERENCE/S) How are you related to your reference/s?
- What do you think this person sees on you?
- Could you enlighten me with objective as so stated in your CV?

Answer

(+) Let me enlighten you with my academic background. As you will note on my resume, I took not only the required core classes in the ____ field, I've also gone above and beyond. I took every class the college has to offer in the field and I also completed an independent study project specifically in this area. It was not just taking the classes to gain academic knowledge but I took each class, both inside and outside my major professionally.

(-) That would be my academic background. I was educated in the American system of education. The skills & knowledge I have garnered through those years would be more than enough background for me to be able to carry on tasks necessarily be given by any company in the field of _____.

- a) How can you describe yourself using only one word?
- b) What are the characteristics that will best describe you?
- c) How would you differentiate yourself to other applicants?
- d) What would you consider unique in yourself?
- e) How do you think would other people perceived you?

Answer

(+) As per my approach to work, I would use adjectives such as diplomatic, determined, motivated, and reliable. Personality wise, those would have to be energetic, positive, trustworthy, outgoing and with a very good sense of humor. I have exercised such traits and would like to believe that I have been pretty much consistent regardless of pressure and trials.

(-) I firmly believe that I am more determined and I am very much eager to learn. Not to mention, flexible.

- a) How hard do you work?
- b) How much work do you accomplish?
- c) How much effort do you exert to accomplish a certain task?
- d) Could you describe your manner of prioritizing tasks?
- e) Do you do things better right away or do you do things right away?

Answer

(+) I believe that I am the kind of person who would do things right away for the sake of accomplishing tasks on time, all the time. It may not be at my one hundred percent effort right away but I always make minor reservations for some adjustments. Thus, it would qualify me as a "somewhat aggressive" type of person.

(-) I make sure that I give not only a hundred percent of my efforts to my work but I have passion doing it as well. With this personality, I am a very aggressive type of person.
